

All set for Teen contest

HT Live Correspondent

ALEE CLUB recently organised its initial screening round of 'Miss and Mr Teen India 2003', an IQ and personality contest at Hindi Bhawan, Vishnu Digambar Marg on November 23. The final will be held at Subroto Park Air Force Auditorium on December 21.

The screening round was inaugurated by choreographer Sambita. Patron of the club Wing Commander H M Sethi, Prof Swami and founder-president of Alee Club Harish Chandra were among those present.

Girls and boys between 13 and 19 years of age from all over Delhi, the NCR and Sonapat, Meerut, Rajasthan cities took part in the Initial Screening Round. The round consisted of questions based on general knowledge and AIDS awareness.

The round was a prelude to the semi-final personal interview round which was held at Ashok Hotel on November 30. Before the round, the aspirants were shown promos and video clippings of Alee Club's previous events so that they could understand the importance and necessity of the contest.

The final of the contest will be held on December 21.

The successful applicants qualifying the interview would be given a seven-day training to enter the Final Round.

The training will include grooming personal profile and tips on stage performance and walk, and personality development.

The panel on training personalities includes choreographer Sambita, Russian model and fitness instructor Lada Singh, former Miss Personality & TV anchor Aanchal Gulati, corporate trainer and anchor Pallab Bose, lensman Sandeep Maheshwari, MD of Inter-card and Dutta & Dutta Films Ltd Sanjeev Dutta.

HINDUSTAN TIMES

Tuesday, 9th, December, 2003

MISS & MR. TEEN INDIA - 2004
HELD ON 8th AUG 2004,
AT AIR-FORCE AUDITORIUM NEW DELHI